
[redacted]

We object to any development outside of the current curtilage of the Bear as this would be development in agricultural land and the impact that further developments even on the car park would have to the environs of the listed building

Yours sincerely

[redacted]

Clerk

[redacted]

