

DATA SUPPLY TERMS AND CONDITIONS

In requesting biological data from Derbyshire Wildlife Trust, you and your organisation are agreeing to abide by the following terms and conditions:

1. This data is provided for a single use as specified by the client at the time of request. It may not be used for any other purpose without written permission from DWT.
2. The data provided is the best available at the current time. We do not guarantee its accuracy, and have no responsibility for determining its fitness for its intended use by the client. DWT cannot be held accountable for any loss, damage, injury to the client or any third party arising from the use of the data.
3. The client must acknowledge the source of the information in any report or publication.
4. Locations of badger setts (and of any other species specified in our response), must be treated as STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL. This information must only be made available to parties with a bona fide interest in it. All information pertaining to such species in a desk study, environmental statement or similar MUST be contained within a separate confidential report.
